Holocaust Remembrance Recognized at VA

A ceremony to honor victims of the Holocaust will be held on Monday, April 8 at 2 p.m. in the Chapel on the third floor at VA Western New York Healthcare System, 3495 Bailey Avenue in Buffalo.

Dr. Renata Lefcourt, professor of German studies at the State University of New York (SUNY) Fredonia, former Board member of the Holocaust Resource Center of greater Buffalo, historian and community speaker for the Buffalo Jewish community will provide remarks in observance of Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Holocaust Remembrance Day, or Yom HaShoah, we remember those who suffered and died during the World War II Holocaust. The day begins in the evening on April 7 and ends on April 8, which marks the 27th day of Nisan.

We pay tribute to all the people who suffered during World War II and commemorate this observance with the Jewish community in the "Day of Remembrance."
